

Lisa Kyle
Windham

To whom it may concern,

I support LD1365 prohibiting municipalities from banning short-term rentals. As a community that thrives on tourism during the Summer, flexibility is key in supporting local business owners (where tourists shop and eat), community members who are employed to support the rental business (housekeepers, property managers, etc). As well as the properties themselves.