

Michael Chaplin
Standish
LD 387

I do not support relocating illegal immigrants (or new Mainers as some call them) to Maine. We have major budget problems as it is, and supporting illegal immigrants will only increase that problem, putting pressure on the government to pull back on support of Maine citizens through various programs, or to raise revenues even higher on a society that is having trouble making ends meet already with all the inflation that occurred during the Biden/Harris administration.