To whom it may concern,

I want to say that I support LD 644. I was surprised to hear stories about people getting a record for registration violations. Considering a registration issue as anything more than a traffic violation seems to be extremely unfair. The punishment in that case does not fit the crime. It can take someone who was a bit short on cash and trying to get by to dealing with court in less than 6 months. This seems absurd, and I'm glad to see a fix has been drafted.
