

John Morgan Jr.
Minot

I believe no vehicles should require inspection. It has been proven it has no change on crash/accidents due to vehicular failure and only gives the state more revenue from the citizens that already pay ridiculous taxes. I feel anyone who owns a motor vehicle should take it upon themselves to inspect there vehicle and be able to drive on public roads as long as they feel safe in their own vehicle.