This has been big pet peeve of mine for a very long time. Why do you burden us with an inspection on a new car? cars that are less than 3 years old shouldn't have to be inspected. It is clearly a burden for automobile owners. Change this to every 3 years. Give the people a break will you. Stop nickel and Mingus with useless regulations that do nothing for safety. Crack down on distracted driving and driving under the influence this is what kills.
