

R. W.
Island Falls

To whom it concerns,

Eliminate inspections altogether. In Maine yearly vehicle inspections are nothing more than a revenue generator by ripping off the little guy and not used as they are intended. The only solution for this is to completely remove the opportunity that corruption can take advantage of.