

Max Joles
Portland
LD 404

Creating this rail trail would open up recreation and tourism potential for this entire part of the state. More importantly, due to the slow nature of bike travel, it would bring business to every community along the way.