

Laura Bergeron
Yarmouth
LD 1750

I believe collocating rail and walking trails right here in Maine is good for our communities. We have existing trail systems that connect our towns currently and being underused by the railroad system. By joining forces to extend this use beyond just rail we combine transportation with exercise, safety, and public benefit.