

Robert Hamblen
Saco
LD 1750

I live in Saco, Maine. I am a supporter of the interim use of the Berlin Subdivision corridor as a bike and pedestrian trail, as recommended by the Rail Use Advisory Council. Such trails are a healthy and safe alternative for bicyclists and pedestrians for either recreational or transportation use, and typically prove to be a plus for both quality of life and economic development. Thank you.