

Andrew Schmidt
Portland
LD 1750

I strongly support this trail system. I can even imagine a robust ebike tourist economy. If we ever get our act together for trains on here in a decade, then the cost of undoing this will be a tiny drop in the bucket in return for a decade of recreation. We have to realize with global warming out winters are shorter and snowmobiling is disappearing. This will help replace that for the next generation.