

Mckenzie Weaver
Cumberland/Gray
LD 1750

This would be a wonderful opportunity for several communities to become walkable. The more Maine can support and build these kinds of trails, the more we as a community will be able to access towns via healthy movement. All of Europe is built with biking and walking trails alongside their major roads. It clearly impacts their culture in an amazing way and I'd love to bring that to our town. New Hampshire has several rail trails all over the state that are a great use of recreation.