

Danny Coleman
Portland
LD 511

Hello

I am a Portland resident with two young kids. Now more than ever we need local actions that promote climate action given the failures of the federal govt. This trail will mean less cars, more culture of biking, more health and wellness not just for my family but for everyone. Let's connect our communities with care.