

Kelly Lynch
Portland
LD 511

I have been an avid cyclist for many years, but trying to "share the road" with cars and trucks has become more treacherous as drivers become less attentive and more aggressive. A traffic-separated, multiuse path from Portland to Auburn would be a wonderful option for someone like me who wants to log some serious miles on a bike but wants to be safer doing it. I urge you to vote "ought to pass". Many thanks!