

Paul Favolise
New London
LD 676

A railroad in New Hampshire is interested in this line being active. This line is critical infrastructure connecting Portland Maine to New Hampshire and should not be removed. This line could be a valuable transportation resource in a time of national emergency.