

Jock MacGregor
Sebago

LD301 the advantages to increasing the overhead cost of the small independent caregiver growers goes to the state a lyrical operatives into the large limited in number often out of state owned mega growers the state will collect taxes from a small number of large drawers instead of many many small independent caregiver givers growers political operatives will only have to deal with a handful of large drawers to secure the funding that supports their lobby of legislative the large growers benefit because they're large volume of such the statutory increase in cost and not an evil Santa control the market