

Sam Wang
Monmouth

This testimony is in support of LD 421. As a licensed caregiver the need to increase plant count is essential to smaller companies competing in a fair equal opportunity playing field. I support caregivers being able to cultivate more plants in order to create more medicine for those who need it.