

Katrina Mascolo
Mantis Medicine

The medical marijuana program has existed for years, and why is it now that it has become legalized for recreational use that such high fines are being proposed for non compliance? Has there been such a history of non compliance yet nothing was done to implement action until now? This is absurd. It is above and beyond how liquor licenses are fined for non compliance.