

Robert Scott
Falmouth

This bill would remove a caregiver's statutory right to operate a retail store and push many small caregivers out of the market. It also shrinks the size of 'seedling' as defined in the law to make it harder to cultivate and to sex and breed cannabis plants.