

Dustin Gregoire
Gorham

I believe this piece of legislation would go a long way to restoring public faith in the election system. In the new age of technology we are in, even if our election is tamper-free, it would be appreciated that the proper steps are taken to catch illegitimate elections before they occur and damage our democracy. I believe this act should pass.