

Timothy Carlson
Waldoboro

Medical cannabis has been pretty much uneventful regarding regarding caregivers breaking the law, why add burden to a successful program whereby we take great pride in our product and the help it is bring to the community. Patients can't afford higher prices. The govt should be helping make us successful not breaking the bank. Thank you, I wish I was available for online video testimony.