

Gregory Miller
Otisfield

I am for this bill! We the people of Maine deserve spot at the table. Many of us have nurtured this industry long before it was popular or profitable and have families that depend on us. Please consider the economic impact that this will have on small farmers and their families