

Kate Hodgson
South Portland
LD 234

There is one thing we can all agree on: the country is polarized. Ranked choice voting is the best tool the public has for fighting 2 party gridlock; more choice, better representation. It's no wonder the 2 big parties want to eliminate it. Voters need to fight for independent thinkers and broader representation. Please keep and expand ranked choice voting, it may not be good for your party but it's definitely the best choice for Maine voters!