

JOHN MCANESPIE
PORTLAND
LD 1620

hello,

i would like to submit a yes for this to happen, the testing labs need to be held to a higher standard perhaps even video of the test happening so if it does come in question we can see the process and if anything irregular occurred during the testing and the labs need to keep video for 45 days like the AU operators do , but the inconsistency i have seen in the last 5 years is so frustrating coming from these labs