

Leketa Schilling
Palmyra
LD 104

This bill is a real threat to the small batch farmers in this state that grow in living soil. The labs in this state do not have a streamlined process for testing. There is natural bacteria that does not harm patients that are being screened as being harmful. The cost to test is also prohibitory for small batch growers.