Joint Resolutions

Joint Resolutions in Memoriam:

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(4-25) Lawrence W. "Larry" Shaw, of Rumford. Reverend Shaw was a veteran of the United States Navy. Returning to Rumford after his naval service, he established the Church of the Good News and was pastor there for 40 years. He later started His Gathering Place and served its congregation for another 10 years. Throughout these years, he was a familiar and caring presence in town, preaching and counseling across denominations. Even in retirement, he remained active. He served as an elder and member at the Praise Assembly of God Church in Rumford, participating in worship outreach and sermon preparation. Between 1983 and 2013, he made many missionary journeys abroad, including extended trips to China and Honduras and other countries. He built friendships at Portland's Chinese Gospel Church and worked to deliver Bibles and spiritual encouragement to believers there. He also supported mission work in Latin America. Beyond traditional ministry, he applied his faith to practical service. He founded and led an initiative called Mt. Zion Mining, a faith-driven enterprise through which he aimed to support ministry efforts and community needs. Reverend Shaw will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family, friends and community;

After time spent in South Africa, California, London and New York City, Mr. Jackovich and his family moved to Round Pond, where he continued his painting and was invited to exhibit at the prestigious 147th annual exhibition of the National Academy of Design in New York City. His paintings hang in museums and many well-known collections, and he exhibited in several important shows throughout the United States.
