Joint Resolution

(1-22) The following Joint Resolution:

H.P. 1327

JOINT RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING MEMORIAL DAY

WHEREAS, Memorial Day, originally known as Decoration Day, began in the aftermath of the Civil War and has grown into a solemn national observance honoring the men and women of the United States Armed Forces who gave their lives in service to the nation; and

WHEREAS, thousands of Maine citizens have proudly served in the United States military throughout the nation's history, many of whom made the ultimate sacrifice in defense of our freedoms and democratic ideals; and

WHEREAS, Memorial Day is observed each year on the last Monday in May and provides a time for all Mainers and Americans to reflect, remember and honor the service members who died in defense of our country; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting for the State to recognize the courage, dedication and selflessness of these fallen heroes and to express gratitude to the families and communities who have borne this profound loss; and

WHEREAS, the people of Maine continue to uphold the enduring tradition of Memorial Day through local ceremonies, parades and flags placed on graves; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That We, the Members of the One Hundred and Thirty-second Legislature now assembled in the First Special Session, on behalf of the people we represent, take this opportunity to recognize Memorial Day as a day of solemn reflection and heartfelt gratitude for those who gave their lives in defense of our country; and be it further

RESOLVED: That We encourage all citizens of the State to observe Memorial Day with appropriate ceremonies and acts of remembrance in honor of our fallen service members and their enduring legacy.

Comes from the House, READ and ADOPTED.

Joint Resolutions

(4-15) On motion by Senator BAILEY of York, the following Joint Resolution:

JOINT RESOLUTION
RECOGNIZING MAY 2025 AS NATIONAL ARTHRITIS AWARENESS MONTH

WHEREAS, arthritis is the number one cause of disability in the United States, affecting nearly 60 million men, women and children, and nearly 26 million of those with arthritis are unable to perform everyday activities; and

WHEREAS, there are more than 100 types of arthritis and related rheumatic diseases and one in 4 adults and hundreds of thousands of children in the United States have been diagnosed with a form of arthritis or a related illness; and

WHEREAS, contrary to the common misconception, arthritis is not just an "old person's disease," as about 2/3 of those living with arthritis are aged 65 and under; and

WHEREAS, one in three adults with arthritis are not physically active, have fair to poor health and have severe joint pain and most people with arthritis have comorbidities, such as heart disease, diabetes and obesity, that further jeopardize their health; and

WHEREAS, as our nation's top cause of disability, arthritis costs the United States economy over $300 billion annually in medical bills, lost wages and associated expenses; and

WHEREAS, in 1972, President Richard Nixon and the United States Congress designated May as National Arthritis Month, a special time to emphasize research, service and education around arthritis and to raise funds to support the cause and every May since then has been marked by efforts to elevate the public's awareness of arthritis; now; therefore; be it

RESOLVED: That We, the members of the One Hundred and Thirty-second Legislature now assembled in the First Special Session, take this occasion to recognize May 2025 as National Arthritis Awareness Month and urge citizens of the State to learn more about arthritis, raise awareness of the serious public health and economic issues associated with arthritis and find ways to contribute to a cure for arthritis.

Joint Resolution in Memoriam:

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(4-16) Robert A.G. Monks, of Cape Elizabeth, a visionary shareholder activist, corporate governance pioneer and public servant. After graduating from Harvard Law School, Mr. Monks became one of the youngest partners at a prominent Boston law firm. He later served as vice president of Gardner Associates and as president and chief executive officer of C.H. Sprague and Son, a coal and oil company. He was chairman of the board for both The Boston Safe Deposit and Trust Company and The Boston Company. In 1975, he was appointed the first director of the Maine Office of Energy Resources. Under President Ronald Reagan, Mr. Monks served as director of the United States Synthetic Fuels Corporation and as one of the founding trustees of the Federal Employees' Retirement System. From 1983 to 1985, he was the Administrator of the Office of Pension and Welfare Benefit Programs at the United States Department of Labor, overseeing the nation's pension system. From 1987 to 1988 and 1993 to 1994, he led the Commission to Study the Retirement System for the State of Maine. He ran for the United States Senate from Maine three times: challenging incumbent Margaret Chase Smith in the 1972 Republican primary, securing the Republican nomination in 1976 and competing in the 1996 Republican primary. He served as chairman of the Maine Republican Party from 1977 to 1978. He was a trailblazing advocate for corporate accountability and a transformative figure in the field of corporate governance, challenging entrenched corporate power structures, championing the rights of shareholders and leaving an indelible mark on both the business world and public policy. He co-founded several influential organizations aimed at reforming corporate governance, including Institutional Shareholder Services, The Corporate Library, Lens Investment Management, Lens Governance Advisors, and ValueEdge Advisors. Through these ventures, Mr. Monks pioneered the concept of "institutional activism," advocating for shareholders to actively engage in corporate oversight. His work laid the foundation for ongoing efforts to align corporate practices with the broader interests of society. Mr. Monks will be long remembered and sadly missed by family, friends and community;
