Cosponsored by Representatives: GERE of Kennebunkport, SAYRE of Kennebunk.

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(4-19) Paul C. Crandall, of Alna. Mr. Crandall was a veteran of the United States Coast Guard, serving from 1963 to 1969. He held many positions throughout his life, ranging from machinist to Director of Academy and Careers and Technology in South Carolina. He was instrumental in raising $5 million in equipment for Maine's vocational and career high school. Among his professional achievements were manufacturing a camera housing for NASA used in photographing potential lunar landing sites and teaching geometry in Russia. He was a member of Rotary International, the American Legion, Project Harmony in Maine and South Carolina and the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. He served as a volunteer firefighter in Marion, South Carolina and Alna and a 4-H instructor in Lubec. Mr. Crandall will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family, friends and community;

SLS 1709

Sponsored by Senator RENY of Lincoln.

Cosponsored by Representative: FARRIN of Jefferson.

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(4-20) Daniel Powell Poteet II, of Portland. Dr. Poteet earned his Ph.D. in medieval English literature at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign. In 1977, after a few years as an English professor, he moved into administration at Hampden-Sydney College in Virginia. He was soon appointed Acting Dean of the Faculty. A few years later, he was appointed the first Provost of Hampden-Sydney. From Hampden-Sydney, he went on to serve as provost at Albion College in Michigan, Guilford College in North Carolina and The School of the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston. After serving in an interim position at the Museum School, he continued to work there for the next twelve years, ultimately becoming Provost and Director of Development. In Bar Harbor, he worked as the Bar Harbor correspondent for The Ellsworth American. He served on various boards and committees, including the Maine College of Art, the Bar Harbor Warrant Committee, the Mount Desert Island Historical Society, the Acadia Senior College, the Schoodic Institute, the College of the Atlantic, the Abbe Museum and the Jesup Memorial Library. Dr. Poteet will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family, friends and community;

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(4-21) Jay LaBrie, of Portland. Mr. LaBrie worked in Connecticut at Stanley Tools, in New York City at Macy's Department Store before settling in Portland in 1969. He worked at Maine Surgical Supply Company and at Mercy Hospital. He then returned to school at Mansfield Beauty Academy with further study in New York and Rhode Island. Upon graduating he was employed as a hair stylist in the beauty shop at Porteous Department Store. He left Porteous to open his own hair shop, Design 1, in downtown Portland in 1978. An artist, he rendered beautiful landscapes, cityscapes, portraits and abstracts. His St. John Valley paintings were exhibited in a one man show at the University of Maine at Fort Kent. His work was also displayed at several studios and galleries in Portland. He taught oil painting at Park Danforth through a University of New England program, as well as teaching many private students in his Portland studio. Mr. LaBrie will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family, friends and community;

Cosponsored by Senator: DUSON of Cumberland, Representatives: BRENNAN of Portland, CROCKETT of Portland, LOOKNER of Portland, MOONEN of Portland, PUGH of Portland, SKOLD of Portland, YUSUF of Portland, ZAGER of Portland.

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(4-23) Bruce Nelson, of Portland. After attending Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons, Dr. Nelson completed two residency programs: the first in general surgery at Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston and the second in urology at Harbor-UCLA Medical Center in Los Angeles, where he served as chief resident in urology. During medical school, he trained and worked at King's College Hospital in London, and he spent nearly six months working in Nigeria. Between his two residencies, he spent two years living with his family and working as a surgeon on the Navajo Nation Reservation in Fort Defiance, New Mexico, as a lieutenant in the United States Public Health Service. In 1972, after completing his chief residency in urology, he returned to Maine. He was one of the first practitioners to perform kidney transplants and reverse vasectomies at Maine Medical Center, and he made regular house calls. He developed the Portland Artist Studios, providing affordable art studio rentals for local artists as part of the Congress Street revitalization efforts in the 1980s. He was a board member of Greater Portland Landmarks and the Maine Historical Society, and he served on the board for the creation of the Portland Observatory Museum. He was also a longstanding member of the Rotary. He was a longstanding member of Temple Beth El and in later years attended Congregation Etz Chaim. Dr. Nelson will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family, friends and community;

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(4-25) the Honorable Karl Turner, of Cumberland. In 1965, Mr. Turner went to work at IBM, his work taking him to New York City, Manchester, New Hampshire and Syracuse, New York. Returning to Maine in 1980, he served as IBM's branch manager in Portland before joining Casco Northern Bank to manage the bank's operations and technology. He became very involved in the community, coaching little league baseball and softball in Falmouth and serving on the board of Maine Audubon and on the Falmouth Town Council, which he chaired for a term. In the early 1990s, he joined the retail banking management team of Casco Northern Bank's parent company, BankBoston Corporation, where he worked for 8 years. In 2000, he ran for the Maine State Senate and won, going on to serve Falmouth, Cumberland, North Yarmouth, Windham, Yarmouth and Raymond over 8 years, from the 120th through the 123rd Legislatures. In the Legislature, he worked to improve foster care, eliminate smoking in restaurants and ensure LGBTQ Mainers equal access to housing and jobs. He also worked to strengthen Maine's economy, serving on the Legislature's appropriations committee for much of his tenure. Following his legislative service, he joined a number of community boards, including the boards of Maine Public, Health InfoNet and the Margaret Chase Smith Policy Center. He also served as a trustee of the Hospice of Southern Maine and the University of Maine System, where he chaired the board's Finance and Facilities Committee, working to find more resources to invest in student education. Mr. Turner will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family, friends and community;
