Joint Resolution

Joint Resolution in Memoriam:

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(4-5) the Honorable G. William "Bill" Diamond, of Windham. Mr. Diamond was a teacher, principal and superintendent in the Windham and Raymond school systems for 20 years. In 1972, he was awarded a Ford Foundation scholarship to study politics and education throughout the United States and Europe. In 1976, he won a seat in the Maine House of Representatives. He was elected to two more terms in the Maine House and a total of ten terms in the Maine Senate. He was also elected to four terms as Maine's Secretary of State, serving from 1989 to 1997. Mr. Diamond co-founded six small businesses with his business partner and friend, Ray Roux, and was named Windham's Chamber of Commerce business person of the year. He served as an emergency medical technician on Windham's Rescue Unit from 1978 to 1982. He sponsored Windham's Little League Softball Team for 34 years, co-founded Windham Land Trust, Neighbors Helping Neighbors and Hospice of Southern Maine and served on the board of Maine State Society for the Protection of Animals. In 2023, he founded "Walk a Mile in Their Shoes," an organization dedicated to preventing child homicides and the abuse of children. Mr. Diamond will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family, friends and community;

SLS 2153
